Case No. _____

Division: _____

MOTION FOR APPOINTMENT OF NEXT FRIEND AND ORDER ALLOWING MINORS, AS WELL AS PARENTS AND NEXT FRIENDS TO PROCEED USING THEIR INITIALS

COME NOW R.S., by her Next Friend A.S., and N.F., by her Next Friend A.F., and pursuant to Missouri Rule of Civil Procedure 52.02, for their Motion for Appointment of Next Friend, state to the Court as follows:

1. R.S. is under the age of eighteen—R.S. is 15-years old.
2. R.S. has no legally appointed guardian.
3. A.S. is the mother of R.S.
4. R.S. is transgender and is a resident of Boone County, Missouri.
5. A.S. is over the age of 18 and is, therefore, qualified to act as Next Friend.

6. R.S. has been diagnosed with gender dysphoria and has been receiving medically necessary care that will be impacted by the Emergency Rule.¹

7. A.S. desires to institute an action in the nature of a petition for Temporary Restraining Order, Injunctive Relief, and Declaratory Relief on behalf of the minor child against Defendants, for violation of her civil rights.

8. A.S. hereby CONSENTS to act as Next Friend for R.S. for the purpose of this litigation.

9. A.F. is under the age of eighteen—A.F. is 13-years old.

10. A.F. has no legally appointed guardian.

11. N.F. is the father of A.F.

12. A.F. is transgender and is a resident of St. Louis County, Missouri.

13. N.F. is over the age of 18 and is, therefore, qualified to act as Next Friend.

14. A.F. has been diagnosed with gender dysphoria and has been receiving medically necessary care that will be impacted by the Emergency Rule.

15. N.F. desires to institute an action in the nature of a petition for Temporary Restraining Order, Injunctive Relief, and Declaratory Relief on behalf of the minor child against Defendant.

16. N.F. hereby CONSENTS to act as Next Friend for A.F. for the purpose of this litigation.

¹ As further detailed in Plaintiff's Petition for a Temporary Restraining Order, Injunctive Relief, and Declaratory Relief, on April 13, 2023, Andrew Bailey, Attorney General of Missouri, submitted a proposed Emergency Rule, 15 C.S.R. 60-17.010 Experimental Interventions to Treat Gender Dysphoria, to Jay Ashcroft, Secretary of State for review and approval (referred to throughout as the "Emergency Rule").

17. In addition to the minors proceeding using their initials, in order to protect the minors' identities, A.S. and N.F. seek to use their initials as well. See, e.g., In re A.B., 375 S.W.3d 258 n.1 (Mo. App. W.D. 2012) (per curiam) (“In order to protect the identity of the minor children involved in this proceeding, we have utilized the initials of the children in the caption of the case and likewise reference the children’s mother by her initials in this per curiam order.”). A.S. and N.F. seek lesser relief than proceeding entirely anonymously but would be justified in doing so as there are several circumstances where courts typically allow parties to proceed anonymously. See Doe H.M. v. St. Louis County, No. 4:07-cv-2116, 2008 WL 151629 at *1 (E.D. Mo. Jan. 14, 2008) (noting that the circumstances include, “(1) where the plaintiff is challenging government activity; (2) where the plaintiff is required to disclose information of the utmost intimacy; and (3) where the plaintiff risks criminal prosecution through the information contained in the pleading”). Parents are routinely permitted to use initials in cases where their child is a minor initiating suit through a parent. See, e.g., Indep. Sch. Dist. No. 283 v. S.D. by J.D., 88 F.3d 556 (8th Cir. 1996); In re Minneto v. M.L.K., by & through his Parents S.K. and D.K., No. CV 20-1036 (DWF/KMM), 2021 WL 780723, at *1 (D. Minn. Mar. 1, 2021).

18. Revealing the minor’s identities, which would be ascertainable if their parents’ identities were public, “would reveal matters of a highly sensitive and personal nature, specifically [the minors’] transgender status and [their] diagnosed medical condition—gender dysphoria.” Foster v. Andersen, No. 18-2552-DDC-KGG, 2019 WL 329548, at *2 (D. Kan. Jan. 25, 2019). “[O]ther courts have recognized the highly personal and sensitive nature of a person’s transgender status and thus have permitted transgender litigants to proceed under pseudonym.” Id. (collecting cases). Additionally, making the minors’ transgender status public is likely to subject them and their families “to discrimination, harassment, and violence,” “fears [that] are justified.” Id.; see also Arroyo Gonzalez v. Rossello Nevares, 305 F. Supp. 3d 327, 333 (D.P.R. 2018) (concluding that forced disclosure of a transgender person’s status “exposes transgender individuals to a substantial risk of stigma, discrimination, intimidation, violence, and danger”).

19. Given the sensitive nature of this litigation and the public sentiment surrounding the issues involved, the interest in maintaining the privacy of the minor plaintiffs and their families is heightened. Identifying the parents of the minor children will reveal the identities of the minors themselves. Doing so would defeat the purpose of the rules intended to shield children from the full force of public scrutiny by requiring them to be identified by initials only in public filings. Thus, an order allowing Plaintiffs A.S., R.S., N.F., and A.F., to be identified only by initials in any filing submitted in this case is warranted.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request an order allowing the Plaintiffs A.S., R.S., N.F., and A.F. to proceed using their initials and appointing A.S. as Next Friend for R.S. and N.F. as Next Friend for A.F., for the purposes of this litigation.
